

GDPR Privacy Notice For Employees

GDPR Privacy Notice For Employees

1. What is the purpose of this document?

Bowmer + Kirkland Ltd and its subsidiary companies are committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information in line with the Data Protection Act 2018 and other relevant data protection legislation.

This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal information about you during and after your working relationship with us, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

It applies to all employees.

Bowmer + Kirkland Ltd and its subsidiary companies are the “data controllers”. This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. We are required under data protection legislation to notify you of the information contained in this privacy notice.

This notice applies to current and former employees. This notice does not form part of any contract of employment or other contract to provide services. We may update this notice at any time.

It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal information about you, so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information.

2. Data Protection Principles

We will comply with data protection law. This says that the personal information we hold about you must be:

- 2.1 processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to individuals;
- 2.2 collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes;
- 2.3 adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed;
- 2.4 accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that is inaccurate, is erased or rectified without delay;
- 2.5 kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed; personal data may be stored for longer periods insofar as the personal data will be processed solely for archiving purposes;

GDPR Privacy Notice

For Employees (cont)

2.6 processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.

3. The kind of information we hold about you

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

There are “special categories” of more sensitive personal data which require a higher level of protection.

We will collect, store, and use the following categories of personal information about you:

- Personal contact details such as name, title, addresses, telephone numbers, and personal email addresses.
- Date of birth.
- Gender.
- Marital status and dependants.
- Next of kin and emergency contact information.
- National Insurance number.
- Bank account details, payroll records and tax status information.
-

- Contract of Employment and offer letter including Salary, annual leave, pension and benefits information, start date and leave date, location of employment or workplace.
- Copy of driving licence including convictions.
- Recruitment information (including copies of right to work documentation, references and other information included in an application form, CV, cover letter and copies of relevant qualifications and training courses as part of the recruitment process).
- Employment records (including job titles, work history, working hours, training records and professional memberships).
- Compensation history.
- Performance information (including probation and development review forms).
- Time and attendance data including timesheets
- Disciplinary and grievance information.
- CCTV footage and other information obtained through electronic means.
- Information about your use of our information and communications systems.
- Photographs for Identification purposes on site and secure printing access.
- Health and Safety records
- Working time regulation form
- Pension information (including application form, any changes made, death benefit information)
- Biometric data, including facial recognition.

GDPR Privacy Notice

For Employees (cont)

- Exit interview, including consent to provide future employers with details of start and end date of employment and job title.

We may also collect, store and use the following “special categories” of more sensitive personal information:

- Information about your race or ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions, however this will always be anonymised.
- Information about your health, including any medical condition, health and sickness records, accident reporting forms, risk assessments, occupational health reports, GP/ medical reports.
- Information about criminal convictions and offences.
- Trade union membership

4. How is your personal information collected?

We collect personal information about employees through the application and recruitment process, either directly from candidates or sometimes from an employment agency or background check provider. We may sometimes collect additional information from third parties including former employers, background checks and DBS checks, relevant to particular sites/jobs.

We will collect additional personal information in the course of job-related activities throughout the period of you working for us.

5. How we will use information about you

We will only use your personal information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal information in the following circumstances:

- 5.1 Where we need to perform the contract we have entered into with you.
- 5.2 Where we need to comply with a legal obligation.
- 5.3 Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.

We may also use your personal information in the following situations, which are likely to be rare:

- 5.4 Where we need to protect your interests (or someone else’s interests).
- 5.5 Where it is needed in the public interest or for official purposes.

6. Situations in which we will use your personal information

We need all the categories of information in the list above (see section 3) primarily to allow us to perform our contract with you [*] and to enable us to comply with legal obligations []. In some cases we may use your personal information to pursue legitimate interests of our own or those of third parties [], provided your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests. The situations in which we will process your personal information are listed below. We have indicated by asterisks the purpose or purposes for which we are processing or will process your personal information, as well as indicating which categories of data are involved.

GDPR Privacy Notice

For Employees (cont)

- Making a decision about your recruitment or appointment*
- Checking you are legally entitled to work in the UK
- Paying you and deducting tax and National Insurance contributions or if required deducting any overpayment
- Providing the following benefits to you: Private Health Care, a medical cash plan, Pension, Pay care, Company Cars, Fuel cards, Life Assurance, Eye care vouchers, childcare vouchers and Permanent Health Insurance *
- Liaising with your pension provider in some cases via a Broker *
- Liaising with the Broker to provide you Private Health Care and a Cash Plan *
- Administering the contract we have entered into with you, including provision of company equipment, cars and car allowances *
- Administering family friendly policies; maternity, paternity, adoption, shared parental leave and flexible working **
- Administering long service awards ***
- Administer our whistle blowing policy **
- Monitoring time and attendance, including compassionate leave *
- Business management and planning, including accounting and auditing **
- Conducting performance reviews, managing performance and determining performance requirements.*
- Making decisions about salary reviews and compensation *
- Assessing qualifications for a particular job or task, including decisions about promotions *
- Gathering evidence for possible grievance or disciplinary hearings, including the use of CCTV footage *
- Making decisions about your continued employment or engagement *
- Making arrangements for the termination of our working relationship *
- Health and Safety Training **
- Education, training and development requirements ***
- Dealing with legal disputes involving you, or other employees, workers and contractors, including accidents at work **
- Ascertaining your fitness to work **
- Managing sickness absence ***
- Complying with health and safety obligations **
- To prevent fraud, theft and deception **
- To monitor your use of our information and communication systems to ensure compliance with our IT policies

GDPR Privacy Notice

For Employees (cont)

- To ensure network and information security, including preventing unauthorised access to our computer and electronic communications systems and preventing malicious software distribution.
- Equal opportunities monitoring but only on an anonymous basis ***
- Booking travel and accommodation in order for you to perform your role *
- Court orders and attachment of earnings **
- Tracking company vans *
- Appropriate clearance checks **
- Carry out driving licence checks
- Using your name, job title, and company/region in our company magazine

7. If you fail to provide personal information

Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your personal information.

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have entered into with you (such as paying you or providing a benefit), or we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations (such as to ensure the health and safety of our workers).

8. Change of purpose

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal information without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

9. How we use particularly sensitive personal information

“Special categories” of particularly sensitive personal information require higher levels of protection. We need to have further justification for collecting, storing and using this type of personal information. We have in place an appropriate policy document and safeguards which we are required by law to maintain when processing such data. We may process special categories of personal information in the following circumstances:

- 9.1 In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent.
- 9.2 Where we need to carry out our legal obligations or exercise rights in connection with employment.
- 9.3 Where it is needed in the public interest, such as for equal opportunities monitoring or in relation to our occupational pension scheme.

GDPR Privacy Notice

For Employees (cont)

Less commonly, we may process this type of information where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

We may also process such information about members or former members in the course of legitimate business activities with the appropriate safeguards.

10. Our obligations as an employer

We will use your particular sensitive personal information in the following ways:

We will use information relating to leaves of absence, which may include sickness absence or family related leaves, to comply with employment and other laws. We will use information about your physical or mental health, or disability status, to ensure your health and safety in the workplace and to assess your fitness to work, to provide appropriate workplace adjustments, to monitor and manage sickness absence and to administer benefits.

We will use information about your age, race or national or ethnic origin, religious, philosophical or moral beliefs, sexual orientation and disability to ensure meaningful equal opportunity monitoring and reporting but this is only on an anonymous basis.

We will use trade union membership information to pay trade union premiums, register the status of a protected employee and to comply with employment law obligations.

Administering our absence management policies, including return to works, time off for medical/dental appointments, fitness for work notes.

11. Do we need your consent?

We do not need your consent if we use special categories of your personal information in accordance with our written policy to carry out our legal obligations or exercise specific rights in the field of employment law. In limited circumstances, we may approach you for your written consent to allow us to process certain particularly sensitive data. If we do so, we will provide you with full details of the information that we would like and the reason we need it, so that you can carefully consider whether you wish to consent. You should be aware that it is not a condition of your contract with us that you agree to any request for consent from us.

12. Information about criminal convictions

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our obligations and provided we do so in line with our recruitment policy.

GDPR Privacy Notice

For Employees (cont)

Less commonly, we may use information relating to criminal convictions where it is necessary in relation to legal claims, where it is necessary to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

We may also process such information about members or former members in the course of legitimate business activities with the appropriate safeguards. We will only collect information about criminal convictions if it is appropriate given the nature of the role and where we are legally able to do so. Where appropriate, we will collect information about criminal convictions as part of the recruitment process or we may be notified of such information directly by you in the course of you working for us. We will use information about criminal convictions and offences in the following ways:

- DBS checks
- SC Clearance
- DV Clearance
- NPPV3 Clearance
- CTC Clearance

We are allowed to use your personal information in this way to carry out our obligations to our client, where staff may be working on schools or for our businesses who work with governing bodies. We have in place an appropriate policy and safeguards which we are required by law to maintain when processing such data.

13. Automated decision-making

Automated decision-making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. We are allowed to use automated decision-making in the following circumstances:

- 13.1 Where we have notified you of the decision and given you 21 days to request a reconsideration.
- 13.2 Where it is necessary to perform the contract with you and appropriate measures are in place to safeguard your rights.
- 13.3 In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent and where appropriate measures are in place to safeguard your rights.

If we make an automated decision on the basis of any particularly sensitive personal information, we must have either your explicit written consent or it must be justified in the public interest, and we must also put in place appropriate measures to safeguard your rights.

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making, unless we have a lawful basis for doing so and we have notified you.

We currently do not make any decisions using Automated Means, however we will notify you in writing if this position changes.

GDPR Privacy Notice

For Employees (cont)

14. Data sharing

We may have to share your data with third parties, including third-party service providers and other entities in the group.

We require third parties to respect the security of your data and to treat it in accordance with the law.

We may transfer your personal information outside the EU.

If we do, you can expect a similar degree of protection in respect of your personal information.

15. Why might you share my personal information with third parties?

We will share your personal information with third parties where required by law, where it is necessary to administer the working relationship with you or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so.

16. Which third-party service providers process my personal information?

“Third parties” includes third-party service providers and other entities within our group. The following activities are carried out by third-party service providers: pension administration, benefits provision, the insurance and administration of life assurance policies, loss adjusters, solicitors, training providers, occupational health, and travel and accommodation providers.

17. How secure is my information with third-party service providers and other entities in our group?

All our third-party service providers and other entities in the group are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information in line with our policies. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

18. When might you share my personal information with other entities in the group?

We will share your personal information with other entities in our group such as HR, Payroll, Health and Safety and Accounts in line with your contract of employment, our legal obligations and regular reporting activities on company performance, in the context of business requirements.

19. What about other third parties?

We may share your personal information with other third parties, for example our pensions provider. We may also need to share your personal information with a regulator or to otherwise comply with the law.

GDPR Privacy Notice

For Employees (cont)

20. Transferring information outside the EU

We do not transfer data outside of the EU; however our third party providers may transfer data outside of the EU. In order to facilitate this, they have put in place appropriate safeguards (such as contractual commitments) in accordance with applicable legal requirements to ensure that your data is adequately protected.

21. Data security

We have put in place measures to protect the security of your information. Details of these measures are available the intranet. Third parties will only process your personal information on our instructions and where they have agreed to treat the information confidentially and to keep it secure.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal information on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

22. Data retention

How long will you use my information for?

We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal information so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such information without further notice to you. Once you are no longer an employee of the company we will retain and securely destroy your personal information, in line with Appendix 1 (attached)

23. Rights of access, correction, erasure, and restriction

Your duty to inform us of changes

It is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes during your working relationship with us.

GDPR Privacy Notice

For Employees (cont)

24. Your rights in connection with personal information

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal information (commonly known as a “data subject access request”). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it. Data requested will be supplied within one month of the application. There is usually no charge for this service, however there may be occasion where a charge is payable, e.g. multiple requests from an individual. In exceptional circumstances, e.g. where a request is complex or we receive multiple requests from an individual, we may have to extend the deadline beyond one month. Should an extension be required we will notify you in writing within the first month.
- Request correction of the personal information that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal information about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request the transfer of your personal information to another party.

If you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact the data protection committee via email at dp@bandk.co.uk

25. No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

GDPR Privacy Notice

For Employees (cont)

26. What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

27. Right to withdraw consent

In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact the data protection committee at dp@bandk.co.uk. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

28. Data protection officer

We have appointed a data protection officer committee to oversee compliance with this privacy notice.

If you have any questions about this privacy notice or how we handle your personal information, please contact the data protection committee at dp@bandk.co.uk. You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues.

29. Changes to this privacy notice

We reserve the right to update this privacy notice at any time, and we will provide you with a new privacy notice when we make any substantial updates. We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the processing of your personal information.

If you have any questions about this privacy notice, please contact dp@bandk.co.uk.